COUNTY COURT MATTERS.

A WORTHY MAN.

A Brief Sketch of one of Mason County's Most Prominent Citizens.

John W. Alexander, committee of William Hiest, was allowed $20 for his support. The case of George W. Cobb, committee of Eliza Lee Cobb, John J. Cobb, committee of Ollie Hughes, J. W. Gault, committee of Dicey Ann Gapp, Dan Perrine, committee of Charles Lyons, J. N. Wilson, committee of Augustus Green and John Ryals, committee of Alfred Montjoy, Cyntha Brooks, Edward L. Bullock and Cyntha Stevenson.

The quarantine in Pomeroy has been lifted, as the smallpox has abated.

The barbers of Cincinnati had a parade last Monday and 700 men were in line.

BORN, to the wife of W. S. Britten, on the 13th, a ten pound son—Ottie Kelly.

JOSIAH SCHMIDT, the veteran snail hunter of West Virginia, has killed 144 snakes this year.

CHARLES HENKEN, who "never see gas before," blew it out in his room in a Portsmouth hotel, and nearly died.

FIRST came a report that John L. Sullivan is drinking, closely followed by one to the same effect concerning Jim Corbett.

DURING a recent storm at Hopkinton, S. H. H. elm tree, under which late Lafayette and his party stood at a reception given them in 1825, was struck by lightning and demolished.

Two Orangemen were awful drunk on Market street yesterday afternoon until Jim Downey told them they had better straighten up. They were immediately transformed into sober men.

JOSEPH S. BRONSTON, aged about 35 years, died at Richmond as a result of an overdose of morphine. He was a son of the late Collector T. S. Bronston, and a brother of Hon. Charles J. Bronston of Lexington.

MISS DORA JOHN, got mad at a Mr. Singleton at Gallipoli and threw a brick at him, breaking his teeth and smashing his eye. She then threw another brick and struck her sister Anna in the back, painfully injuring her.

MARY CARR, aged nine years, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Carr, with child. She was afflicted with diphtheria Sunday. The funeral will be at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

JOHN SMITH, Chris Greglew and ———, negroes, were arrested at Princeton for a robbery. They were taken from the house of a negro woman and gave him a terrible beating. Pettit's indignation for the colored woman was the cause.

ANYONE who wishes to purchase a most desirable farm has the opportunity offered in the announcement of Mrs. Anna Carr, who has a beautiful place in the LEXINGTON. This is a delightful location, none better in the county, and the land is of the best quality.

The statement of The State National Bank, at the close of business July 19th, recently called for by the Controller of the Currency, appears in another column of The Ledger.

ON Sunday Sarah Louise Hoffman died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, of the wife of Dr. Hoffman. She was a native of this county, and was a devoted wife and mother. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was a very good woman. She was a native of this county, and was a devoted wife and mother. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was a very good woman.

The indentments returned at the March term of the Circuit Court July 19th, have been taken. It is supposed the indentments were taken last Thursday while the Clerk was absent from the court. There were 121 indentments in all, but the most important were taken from the same persons for stealing the famous Hilton bonds.

NEAR Frankfort, Samuel Calmes, a wealthy and highly respected bachelor, farmer, 60 years of age, was killed by a runaway stagecoach, driven by a young man, and twenty years younger. He had a quarrel, the origin of which is unknown, and he was killed by a runaway stagecoach, driven by a young man, and twenty years younger. While engaged in the manufacture of plants, Colonel Baldwin, or Mr. Tabb, spent much time in New Orleans and other Southern cities, and became convinced that money could be made by purchasing mules in Kentucky and Ohio and selling them in Southern markets. They made this business, and for many years they virtually bought all the mules in Central and Eastern Kentucky and Southern Ohio. One of them would remain in the South, while the other would stay at home, buy the stock and ship it South by steamer in immense droves.

Messrs Baldwin & Tabb dissolved partnership, and 1884 Colonel Baldwin, with Newton Cooper, became engaged in the grain and tobacco business in the large Cooper Warehouse on Front street. For several years this firm purchased large quantities of tobacco in this and adjoining counties, several seasons making handsome profits. In this business Colonel Baldwin is still engaged to some extent.

During his long and eventful career he has engaged, at times, actively in politics. He has always been a Democrat, though by no means an uncompromising one. It can be said to his credit that he always stood by his friends, no matter in what political gathering. He was elected Sheriff of Mason county in 1868, and in 1871 he was elected a member of the General Assembly and served one term at Frankfort with much credit to himself and constituency.

He has always been considered a power in local politics, and his great influence with the people has always been felt at conventions and political gatherings. That influence was exerted in favor of his friends, and he has been a powerful factor in the career of many of our prominent men.

This enterprising man is also largely interested in turpentine running out of Maysville, and has been for many years its Superintendent, and the splendid condition in which the road is kept is due to his constant care and attention. He is President also of the Germantown Turpentine Company. Such is a brief sketch of a profitable investment to the holders.

In appearance Colonel Baldwin is a man of striking and noble bearing. He is over six feet in height and weighs about 250 pounds. He is well dressed, and his hair is a fine, wavy, iron-gray. Correspondents will please send letters so as to reach us not later than 10 o'clock a. m. Give facts in as few words as possible. We want news in this department, and not advertising notices or political arguments.

MORNING.
Blackberries are said to be plentiful. The geraniums seem to be fading away. There will be a fair crop of apples in this section.

Don't fail to come to Prayer meeting tonight. Honor it with your presence. News is scarce this week. Things seem to be quieting down in this section.

There was a good attendance at both Sunday schools last Sunday. Those knowing themselves indebted to The Ledger for the loan of a book, will please settle with the agent at this place.

Farmers are busy this week making hay. The crop is good, but the tobacco crop is a failure so far in this community.

RECTORVILLE.
A Gardner is in the cattle trade now. W. S. Prather will finish prizeing to waco this week.

Miss Belle Tridder will teach the Ball Creek school again. Dr. Taylor is spending a few days with his son Sam at Valley.

Mrs. G. W. Jordan and Tollesboro visited friends here last week. Mrs. Ella Cooper and son of Orangeburg visited here last week.

Elmer Will Hall and Brother Zeigler's place at Orangeburg Sunday. Several went from here to Plumville to hear Elder Lucas of Mayville Sunday.

Miss Sarah Ball and niece, Miss Alice Mitchell of Mayville, are here visiting relatives. B. Doyle of Vaneburg will teach our public school this fall. Mr. Doyle is of Lewis county's best teachers.

William Mattingly, A. J. Hughes and Archie Gardner of Vaneburg, were taken to witness before court the will of Archie Hall.

SPRINGDALE.
Meeting at Bethany Sunday. Scott Fletcher shipped 300 lambs from here Monday.

Moses O'Brien, our day operator, has gone on a visit to friends in Indiana. The Y. P. S. C. picnic at Sand Hill next Thursday promises to be a big success.

Send THE LEDGER to your friends in other states, only 35 cents per annum. They will appreciate it. Henderson Drake was shot in the arm last week at a picnic near the forks of Cabin creek by Joe Fry.

Elder T. P. Deagan has been called to hold a meeting at Bluefield, beginning the first Sunday in August. What has become of the men who were so enthusiastic over the new newspaper from Rectortown, pointing in this direction?

The trustees have concluded to let the building of our new schoolhouse out to one who will push it to a speedy finish. Birds are in order. Brother Lucas was greeted with an immense audience at Plumville last Sunday evening. His sermon was simply grand. His stirring heart-searching sayings have been discussed continually since the meeting.

We pronounce the last item from this place by one of our correspondents in last Saturday's LEDGER a rip roaring rantanorous cut and dried "tail waiter." It deserves any other name like one else name it.

This is not intended as a "tail waiter," but they say apples are scarce, blackberries are plentiful, peaches good, wheat excellent, corn very fine, hay and oats medium, and the people generally happy. Is De Signa Times.

Extensive arrangements are being made for the G. A. R. and S. V. picnic near East Fork Church, next Saturday. Our Representative Hills is working for its success. The Sunday schools of the surrounding country are doing well. There is the same place. Good speakers have been invited. Come one and all.

Miss Agatha Weaver is the guest of Miss Clara Dugan at Maplewood. Miss Nellie Deugh of Haverhill, O., is the charming guest of her aunt, Mrs. Albert Emmons.

Marion Wheeler of Frankfort returned home on Saturday, after a week's visit with the family of Robert Boggs. Mrs. Samuel Fry returned Monday from a lengthy visit to relatives at Haverhill, O. Her friends think her health much improved.

At the party at Albert Henderson's on Friday night a fight occurred in which pistols were used, and Henderson Drake was shot in the arm.

Mrs. C. C. Deane is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. A. Doyle, at Mayville, who has been seriously ill for some time, but is thought to be convalescing under the care of Dr. Pangborn.

O. H. Trumbo and wife left for Morehead Tuesday, called there by the dangerous illness of their daughter, Mrs. Howard Logan. There, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, also seriously ill.

Thursday night by Edward and Omar Boggs, assisted by their guests, Martin Wheeler, (all blind), consisting of recitations, reading from the books used at the Institution for the Blind, and excellent music was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present.

It is intimated that Calvin S. Brice's term as Chairman of the National Democratic Committee cost him nearly $500. (O.)

The Chesapeake and Ohio officials are feeling very jubilant over the record made in handling the big shipment of forty cars of flour from C. F. Liston & Co., La Crosse, Wis., consigned to Charles Beck of Washington, D. C. The flour left La Crosse the night of July 12th and arrived at Washington at 3:15 p. m. the 19th. When the flour is unloaded at Washington there is to be a street parade in honor of it.

One of the peculiar characters who have haunted the Capitol this session is an old soldier who receives a pension of $24 per month for partial mental disability. He is strongly physical, but imagines that his legs are paralyzed. Therefore he carries a pair of crutches which he very seldom uses. He has a bill before Congress increasing his pension to $72 per month on account of partial paralysis, but his bill will never pass. Nevertheless, he haunts the room of the Senate Committee on Pensions, not alone on days when the committee is in session, but at all times, in season and out of season—very often being out of season. During the absence of Senator Davis, Chairman of the committee, he visited the committee room and swore that he would send a member of his bill to the floor. This was the first intimation that he was dangerous, so the Capitol police ejected him, kicking him before a local Magistrate and laid him under arrest, and away from the Capitol. But this was not enough. He is a dangerous man, his freedom of the city, hanging round the Capitol grounds, and will some day kill one of the Senators. Nobody knows who he is after.

REMINISCENCE OF MERRIMACK.
Quite a sensation was caused in the House Monday by the passage of the House Bill regarding the Merrimack. The bill has been passed by the House, and is now before the Senate. This claim has been passed by Congress continually and persistently, ever since the Merrimack was captured by the British. The claim has been passed by Congress continually and persistently, ever since the Merrimack was captured by the British. The claim has been passed by Congress continually and persistently, ever since the Merrimack was captured by the British.

It was in the days when he was running an underground paper with an umbrella and revolver after "Don Pot." Platt also attacked Mr. Morrill, and the next day in the corridor of the House Mr. Morrill gave him a beating that laid him out for several days. After the occurrence somebody went to Chandler in the Senate and said: "Your friend Platt has just received an awful thrashing. Is that so?"

It is that so?" asked the famous old statesman, with a need of an awful thrashing. "What?" "Billy," he said, it was the reply. "What?" "Billy," he said, it was the reply. "What?" "Billy," he said, it was the reply.
